James 4:1-17

Dr. Stephen Burrell

Conflicts arise from the unwavering desire to put our interest first.

Quarreling generally refers to verbal arguments.

Fights – open clashes between opposing groups.

The unmistakable object of James focus is looking at us in the mirror.

Passions – Something that is a source of happiness.

You can't put your own self-interest first and claim to love God above all things.

Love the world & Love of God is incompatible.

Conflicts arise because we think we are as good as God.

Move toward God and God will respond by drawing close to you.

Conflicts arise because we think we are in control

Conflict is a heart issue.
