James

January 21, 2024 James 2:1-13 Pastor Jonathan DiMego

We must recognize that we all show favoritism.

Our nature is to be drawn to those who can do something for us. Our nature is to be drawn to those we have commonality with.

Under Christ there is no division.

We must kill the double-minded nature in our mind.

Our faith and love for God should lead us to love others.

We need to be people marked by the Royal Law.

We are to be ambassadors of mercy.
