

Four Basics to Build a Strong Marriage

March 24, 2024

Proverbs 22:10

Dr. Stephen Burrell

Decide to build.

Proverbs 22:10 Drive out a scoffer, and strife will go out, and quarreling and abuse will cease.

Scoffer = treat someone with contempt - the critic.

Strife = bitter conflict.

Quarreling - verbal disagreements.

Abuse - rude or belittling speech.

No relationship can endure under the weight of constant criticism.

Criticism has a corrosive impact on affection.

Constant criticism reduces emotional connection.

Give your spouse grace.

Your spouse is not God.

Pornography is outside of God's expectations for your home.

Couples - the Biblical parameters takes the right of saying "no" away, and replaces it with "when"

Decide to stay.

The human heart is longing for other.

Don't wreck the good for the allusion of perfection.

SCAN FOR
ESPAÑOL

