Obedience by RULE.

This is the type of obedience we normally think about that involves complying with a set of prescribed rules and regulations, such as the Ten Commandments. Society depends on this type of obedience to function properly.

Obedience by RELATIONSHIP.

This is the type of obedience reserved specifically for followers of Jesus. This fundamentally boils down to doing what God has called us to do versus what we want to do. Jesus modeled this for us in His capacity to always do the will of His Father. Even in going to the cross, His primary concern was obedience to the Father

Studying, knowing, and applying the Bible to our lives produces CONFIDENCE.

Power through prayer and meditating on God's Word produces PEACE.

A desire for holiness and removing sin from our lives produces PURPOSE.

Caring about others and being a person of grace produces IMPACT.
