

GENESIS II - THE BIRTH OF ISAAC

July 21, 2024 Text: Genesis 21:1-21 Dr. Stephen Burrell

God fulfilled his promise.

We can trust God to fulfill his covenant promises.

The hedonism of our culture sees children as an impediment to the life of our choice or the most enjoyable life. God does not see them that way.

Sometimes our timing and God's timing don't align, but God's timing is always right.

God is working out the best of a bad situation created by Abraham and Sarah's foolishness.

God does not necessarily restrain foolishness and shouldn't be judged as evil.

Ishmael was a product of Abraham's efforts to bring about the plan and promise of God and Isaac was the result of the work and promise of God.
