Text: Nehemiah 6:1-7:4

Dr. Stephen Burrell

- Slander and gossip usually play on some kernel of truth or some weak point of the leader.
- The act of entering the temple would be construed as claiming the rights of a priest.
- The prophets were hired to work against the will and plan of God.
- The best answer to opposition is to keep working and fulfill God's will; thus, others will see God's power.
- It took 52 days to accomplish.
- The walls were down for 150 years and rebuilt in 2 months.
- There was a leader, provision by God, willing workers, and unity.
