Text: Gen 40-41

Dr. Stephen Burrell

- God is still working, even when we cannot see.
 - God's purposes are never stalled by our confusion. What feels silent or stagnant is often preparation.
 - Faithfulness matters more than understanding.
 - God calls us to trust Him, not to fully comprehend His ways.
 - God is near to the weary and discouraged.
 - Suffering is not evidence of God's absence. Deliverance may be delayed, but God's nearness is guaranteed.
 - God uses trials to produce enduring faith.
 - Seasons of uncertainty are often the very means God uses to strengthen and refine His people.
